ZGlobal to Provide Long-Term Staffing and Support Services for Tres Amigas

ZGlobal Inc. today announced that it has been selected to provide staffing and support services to Tres Amigas, LLC to perform the core functions of transmission planning. Under the terms of the agreement, ZGlobal will serve as the virtual planning department of Tres Amigas. As such, ZGlobal will perform transmission analysis, interconnection studies, economic analysis and detailed engineering for various Tres Amigas requirements.

“ZGlobal has the proven knowledge, experience and expertise to provide the planning functions for Tres Amigas,” says Tres Amigas President and CEO Phil Harris. “The staff and leadership at ZGlobal represent some of the best talent in the utility industry that are also very current on Western Electricity Coordinating Council (WECC) and industry issues. Tres Amigas is pleased to be able to contract for these services from ZGlobal on a long-term basis.”
